

Send-Along Activity - Lead Poisoning

Topic 1: Lead poisoning sources, its health effects in humans, and public policy that addresses it

- 1) Brainstorm 3 to 5 keywords or short phrases related to the topic listed above that would help you to find articles about the topic. List them below.
- 2) Conduct a search in Web of Science to find peer reviewed articles on the topic above using some or all of the keywords listed above. List which keywords you used below and describe any filters or other search strategies used. Choose 2 relevant sources and list their titles and first authors in the space below.
- 3) Find the two papers listed above in Web of Science and assess their relevance to the initial topic. Use information found in the article's entry in WoS (ex. title, abstract, keywords, authors, year published, and other pertinent information) to inform your decision. Would you consider using one or both of these papers for this topic? Write your answer and your justification below.

Send-Along Activity - Mercury

Topic 2: Mercury in the food web and its impact on aquatic life

- 1) Brainstorm 3 to 5 keywords or short phrases related to the topic listed above that would help you to find articles about the topic. List them below.
- 2) Conduct a search in Web of Science to find peer reviewed articles on the topic above using some or all of the keywords listed above. List which keywords you used below and describe any filters or other search strategies used. Choose 2 relevant sources and list their titles and first authors in the space below.
- 3) Find the two papers listed above in Web of Science and assess their relevance to the initial topic. Use information found in the article's entry in WoS (ex. title, abstract, keywords, authors, year published, and other pertinent information) to inform your decision. Would you consider using one or both of these papers for this topic? Write your answer and your justification below.

Topic 3: Epidemic of tobacco use among young people in India and policy that tries to address it

- 1) Brainstorm 3 to 5 keywords or short phrases related to the topic listed above that would help you to find articles about the topic. List them below.
- 2) Conduct a search in Web of Science to find peer reviewed articles on the topic above using some or all of the keywords listed above. List which keywords you used below and describe any filters or other search strategies used. Choose 2 relevant sources and list their titles and first authors in the space below.
- 3) Find the two papers listed above in Web of Science and assess their relevance to the initial topic. Use information found in the article's entry in WoS (ex. title, abstract, keywords, authors, year published, and other pertinent information) to inform your decision. Would you consider using one or both of these papers for this topic? Write your answer and your justification below.