

1. I need to find background information on managing asthma for a patient. What resource should I use?
 - a. Lexicomp
 - b. MedlinePlus
 - c. CINAHL
 - d. Access Pharmacy
2. After getting those materials I'm now interested in finding a systematic review about managing asthma. Where do I look?
 - a. Lexicomp
 - b. Google
 - c. MedlinePlus
 - d. Cochrane
3. I want to find scholarly articles on asthma treatment for Black children in cities. What search would be a good start?
 - a. asthma AND (Black OR "African American") AND (urban OR cit*) AND treatment
 - b. asthma and Black or African American and urban or city and treatment
 - c. asthma AND Black OR "African American" AND urban OR cit* AND treatment
 - d. asthma AND (Black OR African American) AND (urban OR city) OR treatment
4. An important place to look in an article to quickly identify issues of bias or incorrect research practices is
 - a. The methodology
 - b. The conclusion
 - c. The literature review
 - d. The keywords
5. I am wanting to save my resources and cite them. The only way I can do this is by manually creating my own citations
 - a. True
 - b. False
6. BONUS: What is the name of a citation management tool I can use to create citations for me?
 - a. Purdue Owl
 - b. Zotero
 - c. Clipboard
 - d. Medline
7. I want to check citations that I created in Zotero. To help find APA information I should...
 - a. Buy the APA manual
 - b. Use the Citing & Citation Management Research Guide
 - c. Memorize the rules
 - d. Look at other examples in other papers
8. Patient materials should be supplied in language no greater than a standard ___ grade reading level.
 - a. 2nd
 - b. 12th
 - c. 5th

- d. 8th
9. When engaging with patients and caregivers it is important to be versed in
- a. Cultural appreciation
 - b. Cultural competence
 - c. Cultural humility
 - d. Critical pedagogy
10. I'm trying to find accurate info for a transgender patient. Luckily I can use the Research Guide to help build my search
- a. True
 - b. False
11. I want help searching but don't feel comfortable with a librarian. Instead I book with a Peer Information Partner
- a. True
 - b. False